What is Bengal Day?

Bengal Day is LSUE’s big preview day. Hundreds of high school students attend this event to receive information about LSUE, take a tour of the campus, explore our campus organization tables, enjoy a free lunch, and win prizes.

Who will you hear from at Bengal Day?

You will hear from our recruiters, financial aid director, a LOSFA representative, deans, the chancellor, and our amazing students.

What’s new this year?

For the first time ever, Bengal Day will have pop up shops (trucker hats, permanent jewelry, etc.) that students can visit and purchase from during lunch.
